

Table 1

Townland	Civil Parish	Surface association	Site subclass	Drawing available?	Reported	Description
Ballycatteen (Baile Caitín...Caitín's homeplace?)	Templetrine (Teampall Trín...trenched temple referring to its termon fence?)	3 vallate ringfort	C3 but drystone built	Yes	Site excavated S. P. O Riordáin 1941-42	Ringfort had 3 souterrains. Souterrain A had 2 rock-cut steps from surface to first of 4 chambers.
Brackcloon (Speckled Cluain)	Kilnamanagh (Cell of the Monks)	None evident	C3. Rockcut site.	Yes	Site surveyed S.P. O Riordáin 1934	Site entered by 4 rock-cut steps to first of 3 chambers around construction shaft emptied by farmer.
Coppeen/ Cappeen West (the place of the cap or hooded cloak i.e. caipín)	Kinneigh (Cinn Eich...headland or head of the horse?)	None recorded	C3 ? Clay-cut.	None	Found 1878. Reported 1923.	'Steps led down to one of the cells (chambers) of a 6 chamber souterrain.
Curraghcrowley (Crowey's plain or marsh)	Ballymoney (homeplace of the monks i.e. manach, or brethern in lay orders i.e. manaig.)	Surface platform/'plateau'	C3. Rock-cut.	Yes.	1929 and excavated by Somerville at that time.	Three rock-cut steps from surface to a 5 chambered souterrain.
Deelish (Duílis ... meaning obedient to God?)	Aghabulloge (Field of the skull or skull cap...monastic?)	None noted.	C1. Clay-cut and masonry constructed entrance passage.	Yes.	1896	'three steps from surface led down at south end of passage' of souterrain.
Kilmartin Lower (Martin's Cell)	Donoughmore (the Big Sunday place monastery)	Uni-vallate ringfort.	A2. Drystone built.	Yes.	1937	Two sandstone slabs on floor of souterrain interpreted by reporter (Archaeologist PJ Hartnett) as steps.
Cloyne Vicinity	Cloyne (Cluain ... the great monastery of St. Colmán)	Ringfort.	No details. Drystone built.	None.	1893	Small rock-cut steps led to stone built chambers.
Coolanarney (Cúile an Áirne meaning corner place or booly station of the sloe tree or night watch)	Drishane (the thorny place)	Uni-vallate ringfort.	No details. Drystone built.	None	1937	Two or three steps' leading down to souterrain. No further details.
Lisnabrinny (lios na Bruíne meaning lios i.e. ringfort of St John the Evangelist of the Breast?)	Kilmeen (Cell Mhín meaning cell of the smooth place in rocky ground)	Clochán (Drystone, corbell built hut)	No details. Drystone.	None.	1937	Souterrain was beneath a clochán...'steps led down' to the souterrain. (From inside clochán ?)
Loughquin (Quinn's lake or quiet lake i.e. ciúin.)	Wallstown (original Gaelic place name not known?)	No details.	No details.	None.	No date.	Site located in Fermoy district. 'steps led down to chamber' of souterrain.
Lyredaown (Lyra dá abhann meaning monastery of the fork, or simply of the fork, of two streams)	Nohavaldaly (Nuachabháil Uí Dhálaigh meaning the new enclosure of the O'Daly family/clan)	Multi-vallate ringfort.	No details.	None.	1897	'large chambers and several flights of steps' in souterrain.

Table 1